Dear Sir(s),

Re: Intimation under regulation 30 of SEBI (Listing Obligations Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015

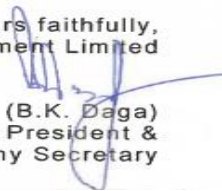

Pursuant to Regulation 30 of the SEBI (LODR) Regulations 2015, we have vide our letters dated 23rd March 2020 & 24th March 2020, informed the Stock Exchanges of the temporary closure of operations at Company's various plants till 31st March 2020 with a view to contain spread of Covid 19 generally inter alia through social distancing as also emphasized by the concerned State Governments.

We have to further inform you that in view of further directions given by the Central Government, extending the lock down upto 14th April 2020, the operations at our plants shall remain closed till that date. The Company is closely monitoring the situation and will take a call when to resume plant operations based on the situation prevailing at that point in time and the appropriate Govt directions. Meanwhile, the Company is taking necessary steps to safeguard interests of its employees, workers and other stakeholders generally and to educate the communities in and around our Plant locations about the precautions to be taken to reduce the further spread/ dreadful impact of the Covid 19.

We will keep the Stock Exchanges informed of any further reportable event.

Thanking you and assuring you of our best attention at all times.

Yours faithfully,
For JK Lakshmi Cement Limited
